The 14 Jazz Orchestra

"The 14" Jazz Orchestra is comprised of 13 of South Florida's premier Jazz and studio musicians. Under the direction of Dan Bonsanti, the ensemble includes distinguished Jazz educators currently on the music faculties of Miami Dade College, Florida Atlantic University, and the University of Miami. Individually, the members of "The 14" have recorded, toured, and/or performed with many of the greatest Jazz and Pop artists of our time, from the big bands of Stan Kenton, Maynard Ferguson, Mercer Ellington, and Woody Herman to such Jazz artists as Billy Eckstine, Sara Vaughn, Jon Hendricks, Mel Torme, Jaco Pastorius, Stanley Turrentine, The Brecker Brothers, Eliane Elias, Bob Mintzer, Bob James, and Arturo Sandoval, just to name a few. Their collective resumes also include Frank Sinatra, Tony Bennett, Peggy Lee, Nancy Wilson, Ray Charles, and Pop/Rock artists as diverse as Barbara Streisand, Marvin Gaye, and The BeeGees. The ensemble takes a Contemporary Jazz approach to a wide assortment of styles, performing compositions from Jazz composers such as Billy Strayhorn, Joe Henderson, Chick Corea, John Scofield, and Wayne Shorter and pop/rock artists such as Paul McCartney and John Lennon.

The orchestra's debut recording, "Nothing Hard Is Ever Easy", was released in January 2016 and remained on the Jazz Week National Charts, in the top 50 for 14 weeks, top 15 for 9 weeks, and reached #9 on March 7th. The CD and downloads are available at all the major online retailers such as Amazon, CD Baby, and iTunes and can be streamed from popular apps such as Spotify on all computers and mobile devices.
